About News OS and Fine Print

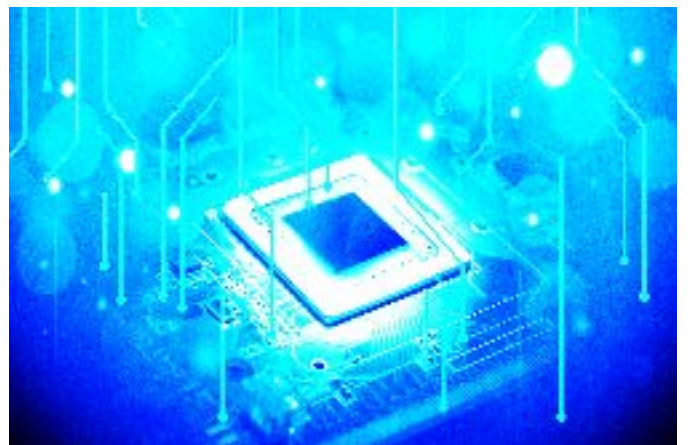

> Team

We are a team of news junkies and news ambassadors. Our contribution journalism is cutting edge technology we have been developing for decades. While media companies use tech to primarily monetize their content, we develop technologies to bring the news to you, our users, and give you ability to sort it based on the media coverage: positive, neutral or negative and rate this articles.

> Technology

News OS is a lot of computer code. Thousands and thousands lines of it and a few geeks who poke fun at news and each other. Our recommendation engine is powered by Human and Artificial Intelligence that identifies the tonality of language in the articles from negative to neutral to positive. We use machine learning to improve users experience. Our thanks to NewsAPI.org for providing parts of our news feed.

Do we collect and use collected information?

Our primary goals in collecting information are to provide and improve our Services, and improve your experience. We do not require login nor transmit any of your personal information to our servers. The only information transmitted to our servers is aggregate of views and ratings. If you want to use certain features of the Services, we or one of our third party service providers will collect certain information that can be used to identify you ("PII"), which may include, without limitation, your e-mail address, and/or other non-identifying information, including your use of certain social networking services ("SNS") and information available on your SNS accounts. For example, if you let us know that you want to see what news stories the people you follow on Twitter are sharing, the links to these news stories will be sent to you via our Services. Please refer to the privacy policy for the SNS you use for more information on how your information will be shared by the SNS.

Information Related to Your Use of the Services. Our servers automatically record certain information about how you use our Services, such as the pages or features of our Services you browse and the time you spend on those pages or features, the links (including ads) on our Services that you click on, and other statistics. We use this information to administer the Services. We also analyze (and may engage third parties to analyze) this information to improve and enhance our Services by expanding their features and functionality and tailoring them to our users' needs and preferences.

Information Sent by Your Mobile Device. We collect certain information that your mobile device sends when you use our Services, like user settings and the operating system.

Location Information. At this time we neither collect information about your location nor use various technologies to determine your location, such as sensor data from your device that provides information on nearby Wi-Fi access points and cell towers

What Information Do We Share With Third Parties?

We may engage third party advertising partners to serve advertising on and through the Services. These third-party advertising partners may (i) receive or gather information about your online browsing activity and use this information to serve targeted advertising to you, and (ii) use mobile device identifiers from your mobile device to collect information about you and your browsing activities, and may use any of the foregoing information to provide measurement services and targeted ads. When using a mobile application you may receive tailored in-application advertisements. Depending on your device, you may be able to reset your mobile device's advertising identifier at any time by accessing the privacy settings on your mobile device. In addition, operating systems for mobile devices typically provide instructions on how to prevent the delivery of tailored in-application advertisements. You may review the support materials and/or the privacy settings for the respective operating systems in order to opt-out of tailored in-application advertisements.

Information Shared with Our Services Providers. We may engage third party service providers to work with us to administer and provide the Services. We also share your information with Google as necessary to receive the Google Analytics service. For more information please see Google's privacy policy addressing the information that is collected to provide the Google Analytics service and how Google uses such information. We also use MailChimp to collect your PII. We or MailChimp may use your e-mail should you reach out to us to send you correspondence regarding our Services, including, without limitation, our promotional newsletters and e-mails. For more information, please see MailChimp's privacy policy (<https://mailchimp.com/legal/privacy/>) addressing the information that is collected to provide the promotional newsletter and e-mail delivery services and how MailChimp uses such information.

Information Shared with Third Parties. We may share aggregated information and non-identifying information with third parties for industry research and analysis, demographic profiling and other similar purposes.

Information Disclosed in Connection with Business Transactions. Information that we collect from our users, including PII, is considered to be a business asset. As a result, if we go out of business or enter bankruptcy or if we are acquired as a result of a transaction such as a merger, acquisition or asset sale, your PII may be disclosed or transferred to the third-party acquirer in connection with the transaction.

Information Disclosed for Our Protection and the Protection of Others. We cooperate with government and law enforcement officials or private parties to enforce and comply with the law. We may disclose any information about you to government or law enforcement officials or private parties as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate: (i) to respond to claims, legal process (including subpoenas); (ii) to protect our property, rights and safety and the property, rights and safety of a third party or the public in general; and (iii) to stop any activity that we consider illegal, unethical or legally actionable activity. Information We Disclose With Your Consent or at Your Request. We will share your PII with third-party sites or platforms, such as social networking sites, if you have expressly requested that we do so.

Links to Other Sites

Our Services may contain links to other websites and services. Any information that you provide on or to a third-party website or service is provided directly to the owner of the website or service and is subject to that party's privacy policy. Our Privacy Policy does not apply to such websites or services and we're not responsible for the content, privacy or security practices and policies of those websites or services. To protect your information we recommend that you carefully review the privacy policies of other websites and services that you access.
